Aldred Neufeldt

lives in Toronto, but grew up in the small Mennonite village/community of Horse Lake, in northern Sask. In the 1940s

A Time When;

- the devastating effects of the Great Depression were still felt
- a childhood filled with wonder and discovery nurtured by parents who were resourceful, energetic and expressed Christian faith & community values through more deeds than words.
- He lived in a log house built by his father
- Aldred ran along deer trails, walked to school on Carlton Trail,
- attended a one-room country school, and
- learned to appreciate the personalities in his extended family

Aldred Neufeldt tells these stories with a keen eye and humorous details in Horse Lake Chronicles

Aldred Neufeldt invites us to reflect on our origins and pathways to adulthood. Aldred will introduce his book and offer readings from specific chapters/episodes and answer questions after his presentation.
